

年 組 ( )

原爆慰霊碑を英語で説明してみよう！

The Cenotaph for the A-bomb Victims

The official name of this monument is the "Memorial Monument for Hiroshima, City of Peace." It was unveiled on August 6, 1952. The monument is inscribed with the English words: "Let All the Souls Here Rest in Peace; For We Shall Not Repeat the Evil." The stone chest in the center holds a registry of the names of the victims. Along with Japanese names, it includes the names of some foreign nationals, such as Koreans and American prisoners of war. Each year, just before the Peace Memorial Ceremony of August 6, new names are added.

Q1. When was the Cenotaph for the A-bomb Victims unveiled?

Q2. What English words are inscribed on the monument?

Q3. What is in the stone chest?

Q4. When are new names added to the registry?

BONUS. What is your impression of the Cenotaph for the A-bomb Victims?

Cenotaph for the A-bomb Victims =原爆慰霊碑 monument =碑 unveil =除幕する
inscribe =刻む
registry =台帳

